

Smile staff training at LVI

Several Smile Dental staff are completing advanced technical training with the Las Vegas Institute for Advanced Dental Studies-one of the world's leading dental education and training providers.

Dr Cameron Arnold is in the final stages of completing his Fellowship in Neuromuscular Dentistry-a process he first commenced in 2004.

Dr Arnold will complete the course mid 2009.

This story was detailed in our December 08 Duo column.